WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 2. 1737.

No. 501.

Yesterday arrived one of the two Mails due from Holland, one from France, and two from Flanders.

THE Court of Russia has received the agreeable News from Tartary, of very considerable Advantages gain'd over the Tartars of Cuban, by Donduc Ombok, General in Chief of the Calmucks who are tributary to Russia. The most material Circumstances are as follows.

Donduck Ombo having it in Commission to make a new Expedition to Cuban, assembled his Troops for that Purpose, and on the 30th of November last joined the Cossacks of the Don, who were advanced near the little River Egozlicks, under Command of the Colonels Krasnoschokow and Jefremow. The same Day a Prisoner was brought in, who gave an Account, that the Cuban Tartars, particularly the Horde, or Division of Etiskuli, one of the chief in the Country, which is able to march out 20,000 fighting Men, were come down from the Mountains, where they suffered very great Inconveniences; that they had carried their Cattle and Horses into the plain Country on this Side the River Cuban for Pasture; and that in order to secure them from being carried off, they had, in several Places, planted very strong Guards. Upon this News, a Party of Cossacks was immediately detach'd to take an exact View of those Tartars, to survey the neighbouring Country, and to see which was the best Way to surprize them. When Night came, the Cossacks attack'd a Post of the Tartars, guarded by several hundred Men, strongly entrenched, after the Manner of that Nation. The first thing they did, was to seize all the Horses they found near it, and then they dismounted from their own, and on Foot, fell upon the Tartars in their Trenches, who, notwithstanding they made a very obstinate Defence, were all defeated and put to the Sword, as were four of their Murfies or Commanders; but the Chief of all had his Life spar'd, and only made a Prisoner, with a View, to get what they could out of him. The Party that had been detach'd being return'd, the Cossacks and Calmucks divided themselves into several Bodies, and attack'd their Enemies on several Sides at once. They recover'd all the Country along the River Cuban from Clanczekzu to the Sea of Asoph, beating the Tartars wherever they came; so that they intirely defeated the Horde or Division of Etiskuli. They sack'd and plunder'd all the inhabited Places, which are more numerous and more considerable along the River of Cuban than in the rest of the Country. They even penetrated as far as Kapyl, a very large City encompass'd with Walls, where the Sultan Backtigirey, the Kan of the Cuban Tartars commonly resided. This City the Troops carried by Storm, ruin'd it intirely, and took a very considerable Booty in it. This Expedition lasted just a Week, viz. from the 7th of December N. S. to the 14th, wherein all that made any stand on the Enemy's Side were kill'd, except the Numbers that were drowned, as those were in particular who attempted to escape by swimming over the River of Cuban, the Waters of which were very high, and the Edges in a manner froze. As the Attack was made in several Places at once, there's no knowing exactly how many were killed or drown'd: About 10,000 Women and Children were taken Prisoners, and a greater Number of the Tartars, were drown'd in the River of Cuban. The Calmucks under Donduck Ombo, have had for their Share of the Booty 20,000 Horses, besides a vast quantity of Horn'd Cattle and Sheep, most of the Cattle of Cuban having been feeding in the very Pastures where the Tartars were defeated. The Booty of the Plunder, in other Articles, is so considerable, that the like of it has not been known long Time. Donduck Ombo sent away all this Booty immediately to the Calmucks Country, of which he is the Head; but stay'd with his Troops and the Cossacks near the River Cuban, in order to pass it as soon as ever 'tis froze over, and go and attack the Tartars of the same Party on the other Side of it.

The Express that came to Petersburg with the News above-written, brought a Letter also from Donduck Ombo to the Empress, of which the following is a Translation.

'In Obedience to your Imperial Majesty's supreme Command to go upon a fresh Expedition against the Cuban Tartars, I put myself on the March with all my Commanding Officers; and a great Body of Men, being all my Troops, jointly with the Cossacks of Don, under the Generals Krasnoschokow and Jefremow. Being inform'd by a considerable Party of Cossacks that we sent out on purpose to get Intelligence which Way was the best to attack the Tartars, we resolv'd to lay hold on so fair an Opportunity, and march'd directly against them, fell upon 'em in several Places at once with Fury, and gave no Quarter to any that we met. We have not only intirely defeated their Troops, but destroy'd all their Habitations, and also penetrated to the City of Kapyl, the Residence of the Sultan Backtigirey, which after we had ransack'd, we reduc'd to a heap of Rubbish. Besides the Prisoners we have in Custody, who amount to 10,000, we have taken 20,000 Horses, a great Number of Cattle, both Oxen and Sheep, and got an ineffimable Booty in many other Articles. We would have push'd on our Expedition farther without Delay; but it was impossible to pass the River till 'tis quite froze over, and in the mean time we have sent home all our Booty, which would have been an Incumbrance to us in our future Proceedings. We continue at present on the Bank of the River with all our Forces, consulting what Course will be best for us to take next, to pursue and punish our Enemies. I, who am your Imperial Majesty's most faithful Servant, shall take care to inform you of every thing, and for the Rest, shall refer myself at present to what my Colonel Jefremow has the Honour to impart to your Majesty, &c.

This News is of the more Importance to Russia, because the Calmucks and Cossacks having now nothing to fear from the Cuban Tartars, may be employ'd with Advantage next Campaign in the new Expedition against Crim Tartary, for which great Preparations are making.

The Letters from Vienna say, they have a Report, that a very great Revolution has happened in Persia, all the People having declared for Schach Thomas who is escaped out of Prison, and that Kouli Kan has been obliged to retire to Turkey.

They write from Constantinople, that the Imperial Ambassador Dahlman, having sent his Lady to Hungary, with his Children and best Effects, and sold off the rest of his Furniture, is set out to the Grand Vizier's Army, to make another Attempt to procure a Peace between Russia and the Porte. They add, that he took Leave of all the Foreign Ministers, but that he did not pay that Compliment to the Minister of France, on Pretence, that the Peace was not yet published between the Emperor and France; but the real Cause seems to be, for fear of giving Umbrage to the Turks, he having, as 'tis said, seen that Minister several Times in private. These Letters add, that the Baron has little Prospect of Success in his Negotiations, because the Populace are so clamorous for a War against the Russians, that were the Ministers ever so little inclined to a Peace, they wou'd not dare to make any Advance that Way, for fear of a Rebellion. Mean time they write from Vienna, that tho' the Situation of Kouli Kan's Affairs is enough to discourage the Turks from carrying on the War against Russia, yet the Grand Signior's Ministers are divided in this Point; some being desirous of a Peace, for fear that the Emperor and the Venetians, should join in Confederacy with Russia; while others wish for War, as the only Means to advance their Fortune: And as the latter are back'd by the common People, who are for revenging themselves upon the Muscovites at any Rate, they will, in all Appearance, carry their Point.

Letters from Montpelier, mention the Arrival of the Duke de Montemar there, in his Way to Madrid.

Those from Genoa say, that on the 12th ult. O. S. the Rebels of Corsica burnt and plunder'd several Houses in the Neighbourhood of Bastia, and defeated a Detachment of the Genoese Troops.

The Letters from Berlin, confirm the News of the Death of the Elector Palatine's Brother, Augustus Sigismund of Neubourg, who died in the 74th Year of his Age; and if he had survived that Elector, would have succeeded to the Dutchies of Berg and Juliers.

His Prussian Majesty has given a Prebend of 800 Crowns per Ann. to the Baron de Pollnitz, one of his Chamberlains, and Author of those entertaining and useful Memoirs, which are the Observations he made in a late Tour to the chief Courts of Europe.

They write from the Hague, that the Prince and Princess of Orange, sat out last Monday se'nnight for Leeuwarden in Friesland, and that his most Serene Highness having been in Person the Day before with the Presidents of the three Colleges of the Generality, to acquaint them of his intended Departure, those Gentlemen waited on him at Noon, in the Name of their Principals, to wish him a good Journey. Mr. Robinson, the British Minister, being arrived at the Hague from Vienna, was entertained next Day, very splendidly, by Mr. Trevor, the British Resident, in Company with the Lord Gordon, &c. and only waited for a fair Wind to bring him to England.

The Incomparable POWDER for Cleaning the TEETH,

Has withstood, by its most excellent and known Virtues, the Attempts of many repeated Counterfeits; some imitated by the Name of Powder, others under several other Names; therefore pray take Notice, that the only true effectual and original Powder, is sold no where else, but as mentioned below: It is sent for in large Quantities to the Plantations beyond the Seas, to whom good Allowance is given, and as effectual in the East or West Indies as at London.

WHICH has given so great Satisfaction to most of the Nobility and Gentry in England, above 30 Years that it hath been published, and vast Quantities of the same still continue to be sold.

It is sold only at Mrs. King's Toyshop, the Blue-counter against the Cross-Keys Tavern in Cornhill; and at Mr. Markham's Toyshop, the Seven Stars under St. Dunstons Church in Fleet-street, and no where else, at 1 s. each Box.

At once using it makes the Teeth as white as Ivory, never so black or yellow, and effectually preserves them from rotting or decaying, continuing them sound to exceeding Age. It wonderfully cures the Scoury in the Gums, prevents Rheum or Deffection, kills the Worms at the Root of the Teeth, and thereby hinders the Tooth-ach. It loosens fastened loose Teeth, being a near cleanly Medicine, of a pleasant and grateful Scent, and in Virtue far exceeds any that every yet found out for those Purposes.

All the Nobility, Gentry, &c. who send to Mr. Markham for the Powder for Teeth, are desired to give strict Orders to mistake the Shop, (MARKHAM at length is under Seven Stars) because most of the Toyemen in her Neighbourhood, seeing Multitudes go to her Shop for it, have taken up Counterfeits and sell their Stuff in Imitation of our true and approved Powder, in Prejudice to the Publick, &c.

The LIP-SALVE.

Which is so much esteemed, and of so many Years long experience, and whose Virtues vastly exceed any Counterfeits sold at the same Places at 1 s. each Box.

For in two or three Hours time it heals them, tho' rough or chapt; prevents the Skin from peeling, and makes them delicately soft and smooth, giving them a becoming bicund Colour; the Fragancy of its Odour also renders Breath fine and sweet, and it may be eaten for its Safety.

LONDON Printed for T. COOPER, at the Globe in Pater-noster-Row.
